The Vega Archipelago UNESCO heritage site

NORWAY For 120 years, Hurtigruten has shared the wonders of our homeland on the Norwegian Coastal Voyage. Whether guests choose the classic 7-day Northbound, 6-day Southbound or 12-day Round-trip voyage-what better way to experience the Land of the Midnight Sun and Northern Lights? Making year-round calls at 34 ports, Hurtigruten opens remote treasures such as the unspoiled Lofoten Islands, with their red and gold cabins and brilliant white-sand beaches; the Trollfjord's narrow rocky gateway; and Finnmark, home to an austere landscape and the indigenous Sami people. Each year, thousands of passengers are dazzled by "The World's Most Beautiful Voyage," exploring Norway's coastal communities and meeting its hardy, hospitable residents. You, too, can soar with the Sea Eagles and ply the fjords of the Vikings-in comfort and style with Hurtigruten.

Visit traditional Inuit settlements

GREENLAND Voyage to exotic, unforgettable Greenland with Hurtigruten and thrill to the sight of calving glaciers, rugged mountains, dazzling waterfalls, and enormous blue-tinged icebergs. The Greenland coasts we trawl feature an amazing range of flora and fauna despite a frigid Arctic climate. Roaming this majestic northern realm are Musk ox, reindeer, ermine, seals, walruses, whales, and Polar bears. Sailing on the state-of-the-art, comfortable MS Fram, passengers visit small Inuit settlements en route, learning about indigenous customs and traditions. Choose from our Disko Bay – "The Heart of Greenland Voyage", wending its way through Greenland's western fjords, "Glaciers and Ice" combining the best of Greenland with days in fascinating Iceland, home to active volcanoes and a rich Viking heritage. Two unique lands of adventure, one incredible vacation of a lifetime, at sea.

Welcome to Hurtigruten

Hurtigruten is renowned for its comprehensive and adventurous voyages in Norway and beyond. With 120 years of maritime experience and a fleet of twelve comfortable ships, we offer voyages that go beyond the realms of other liners, providing the best in specialist knowledge and expertise on journeys that exceed expectations and provide an opportunity to encounter environments, wildlife, and people.

Whether it's our daily departures from Bergen, crossing the Arctic Circle to sail deeper into the heart of Norway's spectacular landscape beneath the dazzling brilliance of the Midnight Sun or the Northern Lights, or our sailings farther afield, to the striking polar vistas of Spitsbergen and Greenland, intriguing and exciting European ports or remotest reaches of exotic Antarctica, Hurtigruten brings you Norwegian hospitality, seaborne expertise and the world's most breathtaking destinations.

See the majestic polar bear up close

ARCTIC SPITSBERGEN Are you a real explorer? If the answer is yes, then Hurtigruten's outstanding Spitsbergen Expedition Voyages can take you to the last wilderness in Europe. Remote, mysterious and extreme, the island of Spitsbergen is Norway's outpost in the High Arctic. You'll sail aboard the luxurious yet intimate MS Fram, our 318-passenger "flagship." These incredible voyages follow in the footsteps of Arctic pioneers and intrepid whalers, sailing beneath skies that echo to the cries of countless seabirds as we cross ocean landscapes of gigantic ice sculptures and remote bays brimming with seals and walruses, whales and Polar bears. Hurtigruten's Zodiac and PolarCirkel boat landings, knowledgeable expedition guides, and fascinating lectures create an intimate and memorable learning experience in one of most unspoiled spots on Earth.

Get close to the penguins

ANTARCTICA The "White Continent" is a land of awe, ice, mystery-and penguins! It's also one of the last places on Earth still largely untouched by tourists. Be one of the select few and journey with Hurtigruten to the world's most remote continent. You can choose from a variety of itineraries that feature voyages to the Antarctic Peninsula or combinations that include the Falkland Islands/Malvinas and South Georgia Islands. Each voyage promises an adventure filled with the richness of exploration and discovery. Delight with only 200 fellow travelers in a close-up look at penguin colonies and historical exploration sites plus a chance to marvel at Antarctica's mountains, ice shelves and icebergs, all from the comfort and safety of the MS Fram. En route, navigate the fabled Strait of Magellan and experience sophisticated Buenos Aires, Argentina. The trip of a life time at just the right price and bring back memories that will last a lifetime.
